BOWLS ARE A TIDE WAY OF LIFE. . .

Alabama's participation in the 1981 Cotton Bowl game against Baylor is the 22nd consecutive bowl game by the Crimson Tide, a national record, and also is the 34th overall post-season trip for Alabama, another national record. Tide teams have played in the Cotton Bowl four times in the past, but with only one victory. That came in the 1942 game when Bama won over Texas A&M, 29-21, in one of the most unusual bowl games of all time in that the Tide made only one first down and 75 yards in total offense. The 1954 game saw Rice win 21-6, the 1968 game found Texas A&M on top 20-16 and in the 1973 game it was Texas 17-13.

ALABAMA'S COTTON BOWL PLANS

Alabama's football team will begin preparations for its January 1, 1981 meeting with Baylor in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday, December 20th, when the team reports back to campus after enjoying several weeks off. The Tide will work in Tuscaloosa, with all practices closed, through the morning of Saturday, December 27th. That day Bama will fly to Dallas and go to the Cotton Bowl to meet the media. The exact practice schedule in Dallas isn't firmed up at this writing, but the Tide will work daily in the Cotton Bowl. There will be several press conferences scheduled while Bama is in Dallas. These will be announced by the Cotton Bowl press committee. Bama will make its headquarters at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. Game time is 1:10 p.m. on Thursday, January 1st, 1981. The press headquarters will be the Downtown Holiday Inn, with Bob Halford in charge. Here are some telephone numbers that you may find helpful:

1981 Could Be The Year

"BRYANT JUST 10 WINS AWAY FROM STAGG RECORD"

Every time Alabama's football team wins a football game, the telephones ring off the wall in the sports publicity office from people wanting to know how many that makes for Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant and how many he needs to break the record.

THE record is 314 by Amos Alonzo Stagg.

Paul William Bryant, age 67, now has 305. Thus he needs 10 more victories by his Crimson Tide team to surpass the record, nine more to tie the record. But before he passes Stagg, he must tie Glen "Pop" Warner who had 313 wins. Stagg then follows with the 314. Stagg, Warner and Bryant are the only three collegiate coaches in history to win 300 or more games.

George Halas won 326 games in professional coaching for the all-time coaching record.

The earliest Bryant could break the record would be in the ninth game of 1981, which would be the LSU game in Baton Rouge. Paul Manasseh would love that. To do that, however, would require a win over Baylor in the Cotton Bowl then win the first nine games next year. One loss would move it back to the Penn State game in College Park, Pa. Two losses would mean it could come against Auburn next year in Birmingham, the last regular season game.

When Coach Bryant won his 300th against Kentucky in Birmingham back in early October, it was a media crunch. The attention each win Bryant records from now on will bring about even more press coverage, and it is something he would rather do without because it becomes more of a "me" thing than "we" and Bryant is a "we" coach.

He always has contended that players win games, not coaches, and that so many thousands of players, coaches, departmental people have played key roles in each victory along the way. But regardless of his feelings, the limelight shines solely on Coach Bryant, and everyone who has ever played, coached or worked for him feels a part of the record drive and is proud to have played a role in what could become a record that would be invincible in collegiate football as we know it.

A special media mobile home has been built and donated to the University by Tidwell Industries of Haleyville, in honor of four men working for that company who played for Coach Bryant—John Calvert, Dickie Thompson, Jimmy Kent Israel and Tommy Israel. It is equipped with the finest of electronic equipment, seats up to 100 people for a press conference and has special television lighting. It was used at both the Notre Dame and Auburn games and well received by the media.

Coach Bryant's 36-year record is an imposing 305-79-16, a winning percentage of .781. In 23 years at Alabama, his record is 214-40-8, and average of 9.3 wins a season and a winning percentage of .832.

Bama vs. Baylor . . .

Cotton Bowl Offers Crimson Tide Chance To "Makeup" For Past Losses In Dallas

Alabama football teams have played four times in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, winning one and losing three, and the only time the Crimson Tide won it made only one first down as its defense turned 12 turnovers into victory.

The 1981 Cotton Bowl matchup between the 9-2 Alabama team and the 10-1 Southwest Conference Champion Baylor Bears provide both teams with a chance to make up for the past.

For the Tide, and head coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, this coming Cotton Bowl game offers a chance for Alabama to extend its bowl victory streak to six in a row, but it also gives Bama a chance to snap the three-game losing streak in Dallas.

Baylor's chance at revenge just goes back one season, to 1979, when Alabama handed the Bears a 45-0 whipping in Birmingham that they still remember vividly in Waco. Coach Grant Teaff's team lost four times in 1979, and has avenged three of those losses during the 1980 regular season.

Alabama's past Cotton Bowl appearances:

- Alabama 29, Texas A&M 21 on January 1, 1942.
- Texas A&M 20, Alabama 16 on January 1, 1968.
- Rice 28, Alabama 6 on January 1, 1954.
- Texas 17, Alabama 13 on January 1, 1973.

All four games have had ironic circumstances. Bama turned seven interceptions and five fumble recoveries into victory against A&M in 1942, but the Tide offense generated only 75 yards in offense. The 1954 game was the infamous "bench tackle" game when Tommy Lewis darted on the field to tackle Dicky Maegle. The 1968 game featured Bryant against former pupil Gene Stallings and a team that Bryant had once coached. The 1973 game was the "did-he-or-didn't-he" game where Alan Lowry scored the winning touchdown on a 34-yard run that films created furor over whether or not Lowry stepped out of bounds.

Last year's Bama win over Baylor was much tougher than the 45-0 score might indicate. Alan McElroy kicked two first quarter field goals, then Major Ogilvie scored from the one and then scored a two-point PAT on a pass from Steadman Shealy to lift the Tide to a 14-0 halftime lead. McElroy hit again in the third quarter and it was a mere 17-0 going into the final period, but the Tide's depth wore the Bears down and Mark Nix scored twice, Joe Jones once and John Hill once as the landslide developed.

Alabama had 447 yards in offense to just 139 for the Bears, getting 431 rushing. The Tide had 24 first downs to only six for Baylor. The Tide defense intercepted six passes and recovered two fumbles, for eight turnovers. It was not a good night for the Bears as 77,512 watched in Legion Field.

But this is a new season and Baylor has a much-improved offense and a great defense. Alabama's defense is still salty, but the offense isn't nearly as overpowering as it was in 1979.

"Baylor will be breathing fire," says Bear Bryant. "When I was at A&M, every game we played was a blood-bath. And they'll have as many people there as can get tickets. We'll have to play our best game of the year and then that might not be good enough."

Bryant stands 4-1 against Baylor. His 1954 A&M team lost 20-7, but the next three years he recorded 19-7, 19-13 and 14-0 wins. Last year's win at Alabama makes the total 4-1. Alabama has only played Baylor once and that was the 1979 game.

Walter Abercrombie was the SWC Offensive Player of the Year. He led the league in rushing with 1,078 yards. Linebacker Mike Singletary is everybody's All-American and was the SWC Defensive Player of the Year. Coach Teaff won coaching honors, too.

QB Jay Jeffrey, a transfer from Missouri who watched the Tide beat the Tigers 38-20 in Columbia in 1978 as a freshman, has put zip into the Bear attack. He has 68 of 149 passes for 1,026 yards and eight scores.

Alabama's new look on offense is freshman Walter Lewis at quarterback. He sparked Bama to its win over Auburn and likely will share duties with veteran Don Jacobs in the bowl battle.

E. J. Junior has made every All-America team at defensive end this year and was a Lombardi Award finalist. Linebacker Thomas Boyd also was a first team A-A pick.

Baylor's determination to avenge last year's loss is built to an even higher fever pitch by the fact no Bear team in history had won 10 games until this year, and it would like to be the first to win 11.

Alabama stands in the way, led by the legendary Bear Bryant. It should have the makings of a Cotton Bowl Classic, which is rich in tradition already and on the verge of another chapter of historical significance.

BAMA'S BEAR IS A RARITY

"This is a 67-year old man who still attracts, motivates and relates to teen-agers without compromising principles. He's the lone dinosaur that somehow survived the Ice Age."

Danny Robbins, Philadelphia Inquirer

Each step that Paul William Bryant takes these days is recorded for posterity by the media. The reason is that he is a unique person on the threshold of becoming the winningest football coach in collegiate history, and when he breaks that record it may never be broken. At least in the atmosphere of college football as it now exists.

These are troubled times in sports and America doesn't have many heroes. "Bear" Bryant is a hero. He's the John Wayne of athletics, a symbol of strength, charisma, integrity, a person that people admire and respect with a degree of worship unusual for these times.

His success story has been documented so often that it is a sugary cliché, and Bryant appears to be more a part of Mount Rushmore than a flesh-and-blood coach.

In 36 years as a head football coach he has won 305 games, lost 79 and tied 16 for a winning percentage of .783. He went 6-2-1 at Maryland in one season, 60-23-5 at Kentucky in eight years, 25-14-2 at Texas A&M in four seasons and in 23 at Alabama has a 214-40-8 record, which is winning them at a .832 clip.

His teams have won six national championships — 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979, and have been "in the hunt" at least eight other times. Bryant has been named National Coach of the Year three times, 1961, 1971 and 1973, which is the most in history. And Alabama has won 12 conference titles in the last 23 years, including eight of the last 10.

When his team lines up against Baylor in the 1981 Cotton Bowl game, it will mark his 22nd straight time to take the Crimson Tide bowling, a national record. Overall Bryant will be going to his 29th bowl game, 27 as a head coach, once as a player and once as an assistant coach. His bowl record is 13-11-2 as a head coach, 3-1 at Kentucky, 0-1 at A&M and 10-9-2 at Alabama, including having won the last five bowl trips against Penn State, UCLA, Ohio State, Penn State and Arkansas.

During the 1970s, Bryant posted a 103-16-1 record and is the first coach to ever win 100 games in a decade since the NCAA was founded in 1906.

Bryant still works harder than most coaches. During the season, he gets to the office between 5 a.m. and 6 a.m.

"All of Coach Bryant's time is spent with work," says current Bama standout Major Ogilvie. "Nowadays everyone has so much leisure time. I like to water ski," Ogilvie laughed. "I don't even think Coach knows what that is. He just works."

The 1980 season was not, by Bryant standards, an outstanding year. His team won its first seven games and had the nation's longest winning streak of 28 in a row, then it lost to Mississippi State, 6-3, in Jackson. Rebounded by downing LSU, but lost 7-0 to Notre Dame before finishing with a 34-18 win over arch-rival Auburn and takes a 9-2 record to the Cotton Bowl. THE coach even apologized to Alabama fans for losing two games, but assured them the program wasn't headed downhill.

Born September 11, 1913 in Kingsland, Ark., he came from a proud but poor family of 12 children. He played in the first football game he ever saw, getting a local shoemaker in Fordyce, Ark., to put cleats on his only pair of high-top black dress shoes. He played tackle and gained some notoriety because of his size and aggressiveness and caught the eye of the late Hank Crisp of Alabama.

He left the tiny hamlet of Moro Bottom in 1931 for Alabama, became known as "the other end" because the great Don Hutson was the star. Bryant played on Tide teams that went 23-3-2 in three seasons, beat Stanford, 29-13, in the Rose Bowl, and was coached by Frank Thomas.

He served as an Alabama assistant for four years, then went to Vanderbilt for two years, but when World War II broke out he was quick to enlist in the Navy and become a Lieutenant Commander. He was appointed as the head coach at Maryland by President Curly Byrd for the 1946 season and was off and running on a rendezvous with destiny.

Ten Texans Letter For Tide

Alabama has been producing football teams since 1892, but in all of those years, only 10 Texas natives have played and lettered for the Crimson Tide. They are E. B. (Bully) Lenior of Marlin in 1917-18-19, Charles Bartlett of Marlin in 1920-21, Manchester Paget of El Paso in 1920, Andy Cohen of El Paso in 1923-24, Billy Hicks of Abilene in 1928-29, Joe Cummings of Muleshoe in 1952-53, Don Parsons of Houston in 1958, Leon Fuller of Nederland in 1959-60, Darwin Holt of Gainesville in 1960-61, and Jack Hurlbut of Houston in 1962-63. Bama's most prominent Texas "name" though would be the great Lee Roy Jordan, perhaps the best linebacker in Crimson Tide history and later All-Pro and highly popular Dallas Cowboy linebacker, who makes his home in Dallas where he is in the redwood lumber business.

23BENNY PERRIN*Defensive Back

21, 6-2, 176, Jr., Decatur, Ala. . . . Considered a starter although only started one game, making 17 tackles on the season, with one for a nine yard loss.

Benny Perrin*81*MIKE PITTS*Defensive End

20, 6-5, 239, Soph, 1L, Baltimore, Md. . . . Made 34 tackles as a backup in 1980, including three for 14 yards in losses. Had one interception on a great play against Rutgers in the end zone. Recovered three fumbles.

Mike Pitts*61*JOE ROBBINS*Center

23, 6-3, 246, Senior, 2L, Opp . . . Missed two games with an injury, but a valuable man because he can play center and guard. Lettered as a soph and junior, both years being back-up to All-American Dwight Stephenson, now with the Miami Dolphins.

Joe Robbins*31*MIKE RODRIGUEZ*Middle Guard

19, 6-3, 240, Frosh, Melbourne, Fl. . . . Was a do-everything prep athlete, winning state titles in the javelin and discus and wrestling, plus being a standout running back and middle guard. Has moved into the second spot late in the year and shows promise.

Mike Rodriguez

69BILL SEARCEY*Offensive Tackle

22, 6-1, 242, Senior, 2L, Savannah, Ga. . . . Started in five games at either tackle or guard this season and is considered a starter even when he doesn't get the nod. Has played both offense and defense during his career. Is one of the team's strongest when it comes to lifting weights.

Bill Searcey*50*RANDY SCOTT*Linebacker

21, 6-1, 211, Sr., 2L, Decatur, Ga. . . . Had an outstanding year and Bama coaches feel he should have made All-American. The heart of the Tide defense. Was second in tackles with 90, with four for 25 yards in losses, and blocked a kick. A two-year starter, led Bama in tackles against Arkansas in last year's Sugar Bowl with 10.

Randy Scott*7*JERRILL SPRINKLE*Defensive Back

20, 6-1, 183, Soph, Chamblee, Ga. . . . Played in nine games this year and can play either cornerback position or either safety position. Made six tackles and broke up one pass.

Jerrill Sprinkle*18*RICKY TUCKER*Defensive Back

21, 6-0, 171, Sr., 3L, Florence, Ala. . . . A four-year starter, Ricky is so versatile he can play all four secondary spots and often does. Started nine games this year. Was in on 46 tackles, broke up six passes, caused three fumbles and recovered one. Led team in interceptions with four and returned them 58 yards.

Ricky Tucker

2WOODY UMPHREY*Punter*Woody Umphrey

22, 6-0, 174, Sr., 2L, Bourbonnais, Ill. . . . Has been the Tide's punter for three straight years and averaged 39.7 this year. Kicks with good hang time and is effective in downing back deep in enemy territory. His kicking against Penn State in 1979 Sugar Bowl games one of keys to winning and going on to national title.

63DOUG VICKERS*Offensive Guard*Doug Vickers

18, 6-3, 239, Frosh, Enterprise . . . Was Alabama's top high school lineman in 1979 and showed why this year as a freshman when he came on strong and played in five games. Can play guard or tackle. Should be a stalwart in coming seasons.

30DARRYL WHITE*Split End*Darryl White

19, 5-9, 167, Soph, Tuscaloosa . . . A fine little athlete who returned four kickoffs for 96 yards, a 24.0 average, and two punts for two yards this season. Played some at split end as he got into six games. The son of Bama assistant coach George White.

Just One Texan On Bama Roster

Freshman center Mark Jackson of Madison high school in Houston is the only Texan on the Crimson Tide roster. The 6-4, 250-pounder was a prep All-American. He hasn't seen much action due to being hurt early in the season, but has a real good future.

15TOMMY WILCOX*Strong Safety

21, 5-11, 187, Soph, 1L, Harahan, La. . . . One of the finest defensive backs in Alabama history after just two years. Named Freshman of the Year in SEC in 1979 and had an even better year in 1980 and is a two-time All-SEC pick. Made 75 tackles in 1980, fourth best on the team, including two sacks of 17 yards, broke up six passes, and recovered two fumbles. Was in on 19 tackles against Notre Dame. Great at the blitz. Was great prep quarterback. Got his first collegiate start against Baylor last year.

Tommy Wilcox*89*RUSS WOOD*Defensive End

19, 6-3, 209, Soph, Elba . . . Played linebacker and end as a freshman then this year settled in at end when he showed his hard-hitting talents, especially on speciality teams. Caused one fumble. Missed the first two games, but played in the last nine.

Russ Wood*Five UA Bowl Records Came In Cotton

Alabama has played in four previous Cotton Bowl games and five of the Crimson Tide's bowl records have come from those games. Greg Gantt kicked a 50-yard field goal against Texas in the 1973 game, Bama intercepted seven passes against Texas A&M in the 1942 game, and the other three also came out of the 1942 game, which ironically is the only time Bama has won in Dallas. They are most yards penalized, as 81 yards were stepped off against Bama, fewest first downs with only one, and most passes attempted by an opponent was the 42 thrown by the Aggies.

HOW THE "CRIMSON TIDE" GOT ITS NAME

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football the team was listed simply as the "varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. First nickname to become popular and to be used by the headline writers of the era was the "Thin Red Line." This cognomen was first employed during the coaching regime of J. W. H. Pollard, between 1906 and 1909. Dr. Pollard, now living in Groveland, Mass., credits Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald, as originator of the name. "Crimson Tide" supplanted the "Thin Red Line" as Alabama's nickname either during the 1917 or 1919 season. It was used in a student paper headline in November, 1919, but Birmingham papers used the term earlier. Zipp Newman, sports editor of the Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

Texas 17, Alabama 13. Exciting "did-he-or-didn't he?" game where Texas' Alan Lowry scored winning TD on 34-yard run down left sidelines with 3:20 remaining. Press-box cameras created furor over whether Lowry stepped out of bounds at 10-yard line. Texas overcame 10-0 and 13-3 deficits. Roosevelt Leaks (120 yards on 25 carries) and Lowry (117 on 16) paced Texas in battle of Wishbones, while Terry Davis led Alabama in early domination of play. For fourth straight year, the team that got off to 3-0 lead finally lost the game. Greg Gantt kicked Classic record 50-yard field goal on Tide's first possession; Alabama raised it to 10-0 on Steve Wade's 42-yard interception and Wilbur Jackson's 31-yard TD run on first down. Texas scored on a 59-yard drive in the third to set the stage for the 80-yard march late in the game. Alabama stormed back after Texas' last touchdown, driving 47 yards to the Texas 43 before Randy Braband stopped Jackson for a loss of a yard on fourth and one. Braband and Lowry were voted outstanding defensive and offensive players. COACHES: Texas—Darrell Royal; Alabama—Paul Bryant. WEATHER: Partly cloudy to cloudy, cool.

BOWL INCOME JUMPS ANOTHER TWO MILLION

Record payoffs by 12 post-season bowls pushed more than $18 million into collegiate athletics after the 1979 regular season as bowl income continued to increase again.

The 30 schools that appeared in the 15 NCAA approved post-season games realized the biggest payoff out of the $18,053,087.38 paid, although schools from conferences had to share their money with non-bowl members.

The biggest payoff and crowd once again was the Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl's payoff jumped more than $100,000 to $4,399,184 last year and had an audience of 105,629 on hand. The Cotton Bowl had the second largest payoff at $3,448,266, with the Orange third at $2,590,796.88 and the Sugar Bowl was fourth at $2,011,165.20.

The Sugar Bowl was one of four post-season games which set attendance records last year. A crowd of 77,484 was on hand in the Superdome as national champion Alabama defeated Arkansas 24-9. Other bowls with record attendance figures were the Peach (58,933), Hall of Fame (65,041) and Garden State (54,410).

The Sugar Bowl crowd was the second largest of the 15 bowls.

The two newest bowl games—the Holiday Bowl in San Diego and the Garden State Bowl in New Jersey—both showed growth in their second seasons. Both recorded record payoffs.

Here are the bowl payoffs for the last four years, according to the best information available.

FOOTBALL'S ORIGIN AT ALABAMA

"Mr. W. G. Little, of Livingston, Ala., was the first man to introduce football at the University. Mr. Little had been a student at Andover, Mass., and went to the University (of Alabama) carrying his uniform and a great bag of enthusiasm for the game in 1892. A number of students joined in with him in the season beginning in October of that year."—Crimson White (Student Paper), Nov. 25, 1926.

Alabama's first game was played in Birmingham on Friday afternoon, Nov. 11, 1892, at the old Lakeview Park. Opposition was furnished by a picked team from Professor Taylor's school and Birmingham high schools, with Alabama winning, 56-0. Early teams were a bit tougher than current squads, it seems, as the following afternoon Alabama played the Birmingham Athletic Club, losing 5-4 when Ross, of B. A. C., kicked a 65 yard field goal. Impossible though it may seem, this field goal was listed as a collegiate record at one time and Birmingham papers of the day featured its distance in writeups of the game.

The gridiron sport rapidly caught the students' fancy and the game became a favorite with University athletes. In 1896 the University's board of trustees passed a rule forbidding athletic teams from traveling off the campus. The following season only one game was played and in 1898 football was abandoned at Alabama. Student opposition to the ruling was so strong that the trustees lifted the travel ban and football was resumed in 1899, to continue without interruption until the first World War forced cancellation of the 1918 games.

Alabama first gained national recognition in 1922 when the University of Pennsylvania was defeated, 9-7, in Philadelphia. The following season Wallace Wade became head coach and in 1925 led the Crimson Tide to its first undefeated and untied season and its first Rose Bowl invitation. On Jan. 1, 1926, an unheralded, underrated team from Tuscaloosa came from behind to upset Washington State, 20-19, in the Rose Bowl and establish a precedent of colorful play that recent Crimson Tide teams have continued to uphold.
